FINE MEETING IN PROSPECT

NEW TRACK NEAR COEUR D'ALENE, IDAHO, TO BE OPENED ON MONDAY.

Racing Holds Out Promise of Being Best of the Year in the Far West-Track Faster Than Other Inter-Mountain Courses.

Spokane, Wash., September 8.—What gives promise of being the most successful far western meeting of the year will open on Monday next at the new track of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association at Alan, Idaho. Some 600 horses, representing the pick of the stables that have been racing in Utah, Montana and British Columbia all season, together with additions from the east, will participate in the racing and should provide sport of a high order.

gether with additions from the east, will participate in the racing and should provide sport of a high order.

All is in readiness for the opening of the meeting, so far as the new plant is concerned. It has been entirely completed and horsemen are well pleased with its appointments. The course itself has been well settled, horses having been working over it for several weeks. It will be a faster track than the other courses of the inter-mountain region.

Virtually all of the horses that have been racing at Anaconda will be shipped here as soon as that meeting closes to join the several hundred already quartered here. Special trains will leave Butte and Anaconda Sunday laden with racing folk and horses. The management will be disappointed if the opening day crowd does not exceed 5,000, so keen is the interest that is taken locally in the sport.

The opening week of the thirty-six-days meeting will be featured by the running of two $1,000 stakes and a $500 handleap. The rest of the purses will be of the $300 variety, making it the most attractive western meeting of the year from the horsemen's standpoint.

Well-known western racing officials will supervise the technical end of the sport, the roster being as follows: Presiding judge, Robert Leighfon; associate judge, F. St. D. Skinner, starter, Richard Dwyer; clerk of the scales, Phil Relily; paddock judge, and timer. J. C. Dinue; steward representing Pacific Jockey Club, F. St. D. Skinner, The officers of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association include M. D. Wright, president; W. E. Sander, W. W. Finn, superintendent of construction.

With the exception of one week, when the scene of local racing will be shifted to the half-mile track of the Spokane Inter-State Fair in this city, the sport will continue at the Idaho track until October 28.

TWENTY CARMAN RACERS FOR LEXINGTON

New York Turfman Plans to Race Pretentious String at Kentucky Association Meeting,

Louisville, Ky., September S.—Heavy showers again put a stop to fast trials at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park today, though nearly every one of the 500 horses in training at the two tracks were worked during the morning. With good weather tomorrow the two courses will again be in excellent condition.

R. F. Carman will take twenty horses the first of R. F. Carman will take twenty horses the first of the week to Lexington to race and return them here in time for the opening of the fall meeting on Monday, September 25. He is figuring on starting his Kentucky Endurance Stakes candidate, Bonnie Kelso, at Lexington to prepare him for the big race here on Saturday, October 7. Mr. Carman says he does not think he will race his good colt, The Turk, at all this year, though he is training well and appears to be so that with a few weeks' work he will be ready for racing. In figuring on the shipping of as many as twenty horses to Lexington Mr. Carman said: "Why wouldn't I take everything there that I have ready to race, when they give nine days of as many as twenty horses to Lexington Mr. Carman said: "Why wouldn't I take everything there that I have ready to race, when they give nine days at each place?" It will be news that Mr. Carman may now be considered a breeder as well as a racing turfman. He already has two young mares in the stud, Achieve being one of them and Paradise Queen the other, both having been useful as racers and richly bred. He has mated Achieve this season with Plaudit and Paradise Queen with Ormondale.

C. C. Van Meter will take his two-year-olds, Dilatory and Robert, to Lexington on Monday. Mr. Van Meter owns these two colts, while the two-year-olds putch Boy and Cancel are owned by him in partnership with Barney McDavitt. These two will be sold as soon as a buyer can be found, as the partnership existing between Messrs. Van Meter and McDavitt has been dissolved save in the ownership of these two youngsters.

as soon as a buyer can be found, as the partnership existing between Messrs. Van Meter and McDavitt has been dissolved save in the ownership of these two youngsters.

Peter Wimmer will send only his two-year-old Cynosure to Lexington to race, and he has entrusted him to trainer J. McCormick, who has the horses owned by G. P. Chinn and W. H. Frye. Mr. Wimmer will not go to Lexington, but will remain here to look after his other three horses, one of which is the useful three-year-old, Any Port.

The string of J. F. Gaffney, a Tennessee turfman, is now at Douglas Park in charge of trainer E. Crockett. The stable is composed of five horses, Helen Burnett, Gertrude Hill, Sarah Chenault, Hickling and the good selling plater, Tom Bigbee. The latter looks exceptionally well.

"Tex" Foreman has arrived from the Canadian tracks. He has in charge Motherkins, owned by himself and P. Knebelkamp's recent purchase, Island Queen, are now being trained in the stable of Wayne O. Joplin.

F. J. Pons and J. B. Respess each now have sevencen horses in training at Douglas Park. Trainer Walker of the Pons stable said this morning that he probably would not ship anything to Lexington to race.

LEADING AMERICAN TRAINERS OF 1911

In the table below is shown what our most successful trainers of this year have done in the matter of money won and races won by horses in their charge. The left half of the table gives the total of money won, the other half showing the number of races won. In both departments Samuel C. Hildreth is the leader, but in money won A. Ewing is second and William Garth third, while in races won H. G. Bedwell is second and W. A. Burttschell third. The success of a race horse is dependent on good training and no body of men more competent exists than the list given in the table below. The results of their skill and minute attention to every detail of a trying profession are reflected in the following interesting exhibit:

SUNSTAR RETIRED TO THE STUD.

There is a general impression in England that Sunstar was really an extraordinary race horse and that he could hardly have failed to win the St. Leger had he remained sound. But he recently broke down in training for the event and the occurrence led Sporting Life to say on the day following: "Sunstar's breakdown, though not entirely unexpected, is to be regretted, for everyone was hoping that the trouble which manifested itself during the race for the Derby would be overcome by rest and careful treatment, and that the son of Sundridge would be able to run in the St. Leger and add his name to the list of winners of the "Triple Crown." This there seemed every prospect of his doing, for on the running at Epsom he appeared to have the beating of all the possible competitors at Doncaster, and all doubts as to his staying the course had been set at rest.

"As Sunstar is to retire to the stud his tabulated pedigre will prove of interest.

HORSES WORKING WELL OVER NEW TRACK

Spokane, Wash., September 8.—The Coeur d'Alene race meeting, which opens next Monday, is having a splendid effect on stake events scheduled for the Spokane Interstate Fair the week commencing October 2, entries for all events breaking all previous records. Secretary Robert H. Cosgrove announces that the Spokane Derby entries total over thirty-five, the greatest number ever received, while other running events show entry lists of from thirty to forty-five horses.

Recent work-outs at the new Alan track included the following Belle of Iroquois—Half mile in 49.
Blondy—Five-eighths in 1:03.
Daddy Gip—Five-eighths in 1:02.
Ed Ball and Military Man—Half mile in 50.
Enfield—Five-eighths in 1:02; well in hand.

Chas. S., Chicago. When Good Ship won a selling race August 30, she was bid up and bought by H. G. Bedwell. Subsequently and previous to her race of September 6, he sold her to W. B. Carson, but no notice of the transaction had reached here, so in the latter race she was coupled in the entries with Little Elva. Only the latter ran for your bet but, since Good Ship was beaten also, it lost anyway.

BALLOT REPORTED SOLD TO GERMANY.

The associated press sent out a despatch from New York yesterday to the effect that James R. Keene had sold the famous Voter stallion Ballot, winner of the Suburban Handicap and numerous other important American stakes, to the German government, and that Ballot will shortly take his place in the Kaiser's Imperial Stud, where the famous Ard Patrick, winner of the Epsom Derby of 1902, and Bignou, a French horse contemporaneous with Bayardo, are already located. The report had it that the price was something over $50,000.

At Lexington yesterday Maj, Foxhall A. Daingerfield said that he had no information from Mr. Keene or from his office in New York concerning the reported sale of Ballot to the German government. He knows nothing of the matter other than what he read in the Associated Press dispatch from New York. He said, however: "I would not be surprised if the report is correct."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Racing folks will regret to learn that death reently claimed Capt. E. B. Cassatt's youngest son France.

Chief Kee, which failed to live up to his early promise, has been sold to M. Leroy and will be seen under new colors at the Woodbine meeting.

Three of the men arrested by Sheriff Zimmer's deputies at the Hawthorne race track last Saturday and Monday for alleged violation of the Illinois betting law, were fined Thursday. The others arrested were granted continuances in an Oak Park justice court. Julius Williams, who pleaded guilty, was fined $10. Jacob Block and Bernie Salinger were fined $20 each upon the testimony of deputies.

BLUE BONNETS CARD GOOD

MONTREAL JOCKEY CLUB'S SECOND MEETING TO OPEN THIS AFTERNOON.

More Horses Available for the Racing Than During First Meeting-Plant in Fine Condition -Gossip from Canadian Circuit.

Montreal, Que., September 8.—The Montreal Jockey Club offers its patrons one of the best cards ever run over the Blue Bonnets course for its opening day's program tomorrow. Eight races are carded with the Earl Grey Cup, the King's Plate and a steeplechase over the two-miles course as features. Large fields are named in a majority of the races and as the prospective starters are all evenly balanced, it means that the task of selecting winners will not be an easy one. Some keen sport should result, especially as the track is in splendid condition. All of the important stables that have been racing on the Canadian circuit, with the exception of R. F. Carman and S. C. Hiddreth, are here. Priscillian, which Mr. Hildreth was handling for August Belmont, will be sent from Sheepshead Bay to join the Belmont horses which are being trained by John Whaleu. A tremendous crowd is gathered here from all sections and three specials from New York are due to arrive in the morning.

Secretary Northey has the plant in excellent shape. The lawns in front of the clubhouse enclosure and grandstand are covered with a thick carpet of grass and special attention has been paid to the steeple-chase course, which now ranks second to none on this continent.

The King's Plate, which is purely a local affair, will attract considerable attention from Montreal will attract considerable attention from Montreal this continent.

The King's Plate, which is purely a local affair, will attract considerable attention from Montreal race-goers There are six entered and a majority of them have worked well for the race. Bushlark is a favorite with the clockers, who have witnessed his trials and he will not lack for support. Sans Droit will also have a following, but one of the others may prove a surprise. The race looks to be an open affair.

The Beverwyck Stable is making a strong bid in the Earl Grey Cup. Trainer Woodford has named Aldrian, Bob R, and Sir John Johnson to go and it may be that all three of them will face the barrier.

The steeplechase division is the Earl Grey Cup. Trainer Woodford has named Aldrian, Bob R. and Sir John Johnson to go and it may be that all three of them will face the barrier.

The steeplechase division is especially strong here this fall and the races through the field will undoubtedly prove a strong attraction. There are eleven entries in tomorrow's 'chase and included in the lot are the pick of the steeplechasers that have been racing here this summer. Gwyn Tompkins, William Garth and Bartlett McLennan will each be represented by entries of more than one in the race and rumor has it that one of the McLennan horses, Buckthorn, is a promising fencer. Williams will probably have the mount on him and it is predicted that he will take a lot of beating provided he runs to his work.

There are two two-year-old races, both of which are at five and a half furlongs, Several of the juveniles will be making their maiden effort.

Two stables came from Toronto this morning. W. V. Conran arrived with ten and William Walker with six.

The promising three-year-old Whist, in the Belmont stable, died here a few days ago of compaction of the bowels. Watervale and Flint Rock, in the same stable, will not race until the Pimilto meeting. Both are being freshened by trainer Whalen.

Edda, in the Schorr stable, Ta Nun Da, owned by C. A. Crew, and T. R. Condran's good three-year-old, The Nigger, are reported as being down with fever contracted while being shipped here from Windisor. The Nigger is said to be in bad condition. There are many more horses at Blue Bonnets now than during the first meeting and the daily cards should fill well. This is due to additions from New York and Maryland. There are over forty steeple-chasers at Blue Bonnets, which is a greater number than was seen at any of the other tracks this season. A number of these were rested here all summer and are fit and ready.

The officials for the meeting are on hand and many well-known followers of the turf have arrived from the east and west. There will be more New Yorkers here than at other Ca brought out the largest attendance of the meeting. The crowd largely exceeded the big throng of Labor Day.

The feature race of the afternoon at one and one-eighth miles attracted a small field of stayers, among which Miami found the greatest favor among those speculatively inclined and closed the best-backed of any in the race. Stoneman, which despite his well-known liking for the distance and going, was over-looked by the majority and went into a long lead at once and, making every post a winning one, easily disposed of Miami when that horse momentarily challenged a sixteenth from the finish.

The followers of favorites were badly worsted, but one of their selections being returned winner.

The exodus of horses to Coeur d'Alene began to-day, many stables departing. Special trains will be run at the close of the meeting tomorrow to transport those that remain.

HILDRETH HORSES CHANGE HANDS.

New York, September 8. of the Hildreth stable had been declared off at Sheepshead Bay yesterday, Mr. Hildreth sold several of his horses privately. Joseph E. Davis purchased Firestone and Royal Meteor. Firestone will be schooled through the field. The Welkin was sold to Ral Parr for $3,000 and Mr. Parr also bought Burly for $2,000.
